“ Kelly I'm so sadden to hear of your passing. I remember the times we spent talking when you lived next to me on Taylor Street. You were working 2 jobs to make sure your girls had what they needed. Those girls were your biggest joy in life. I remember how you would light up when someone asked you about them. I will always remember our times working at AGH you would always make my day a little brighter. Kelly I feel so bad that your gone it's really not fair but I hope your are at peace and you will always be in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Kelly had such a giving heart. Great sense of humor. Good listener. Always made people feel comfortable regardless of status. Kelly didn't have an easy life at times, but, always a trooper to overcome adversity. You are & will continue to be loved & missed by those fortunate to have cross their paths. Love You, Aunt Joan “ Hey Mama, oh I have so many memories to share. My life is never gonna be the same. You are such a beautiful soul inside and out. You are the best person I know. You were there for me through every struggle, every accomplishment I have ever made in my life, you always have my back no matter what. We had fights but we always apologized like literally 2 minutes after we had them. We have never left anything unsaid between us. I can't even express how much I am going to miss you. Seeing and talking to you every single day. I don't know how I'm gonna adjust to a life without you here with me. I wish you could be here to watch Savannah grow up. This is so unfair on so many levels. I'm happy you aren't suffering anymore. I will take care of Sean and Lexie and of course our Savannah. You are the best mom I could have ever wished for. You are at peace. I love you so much mom, more than you'll ever know. R.I.P Mama. I love you.

“ Kel, words can never express my feelings toward you. You put up with me as a child always following you around, asking you to play with me and hang out and never once complained or told me to go away. As a teenager you were my confidant and partner in crime. As an adult you were my friend and most importantly my SISTER. I love you and will miss you more than you'll ever know.
