

Patricia A. Foltyn

August 29, 1941 - May 10, 2020

Patricia Foltyn

Aged 78, passed away peacefully on May 10, 2020. Patricia was born in Pittsburgh, PA to Lawrence and Dorothy Mazza (Parano). She was the youngest of seven siblings (deceased): Lawrence, Robert, Richard, Elizabeth, Angeline, and Charles. She lived the majority of her life in Lawrenceville, PA. She worked for decades as a secretary for a local plumbing company, and worked in her sister's ceramic shop in Millvale, PA. Patricia was married to the late Regis Foltyn, and they are survived by two children: Tres Marie (Brian) and Leon (Lisa); six grandchildren: TJ (Bridget), Brian (Lauren), Matt (Kimberly), Aidan, Maura and Rian; and four great-grandchildren: Kaycie, Wyatt, Delaney and Brian. She also leaves numerous nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews, to whom she was known as Aunt Patsy. Due to the current pandemic, a private family gathering and interment will be held at a later date. The family asks that memorial contributions be made to Reformed Presbyterian Home, Gracious Giving, Grateful Living Fund. This fund supports the housing and medical care for older adults. Donation information is available on their website. Reformed Presbyterian Home: 2344 Perrysville Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15214. rphome.org
