

Alan I. Lichtenstein

November 21, 1942 - April 10, 2021

Alan LICHTENSTEIN

Passed away on April 10, 2021, from complications of lung cancer. He is survived by his life partner of 31 years, Joan Breman; his children, Michael Lichtenstein (Anjali), Jamie Lichtenstein (John Pawling), Sherri Whitlock (Michael) and Steven Breman; grandchildren, Nikhil and Avinash Lichtenstein, Benjamin and John Pawling, Rachel Preston (Colin) and Alex Preston (Kendall). He graduated from Taylor Alderdice High School (1960) and Washington and Jefferson College (1964) and was well known in the insurance field specializing in Health and Medicare. Alan had a quick sense of humor and made everyone laugh. He was loved and respected by friends, family, clients and his medical team. Due to Covid, a private service will be held at the D'ALESSANDRO FUNERAL HOME and CREMATORY, LTD, Lawrenceville. Alan will be buried at Tiphereth Israel Cemetery in Millvale. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the UPMC Hillman Cancer Center. www.dalessandro ltd.com

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to Joan and the family. I bowled with Al at foward lanes in squirrel hill for many years. Him and my parents were really good friends. His sense of humor was awesome. May he RIP.

Dear Joan,

Alan and I were friends for over seventy years, I guess you call that a life long friendship. We had a conversation several weeks ago and that time we said our goodbyes! (Not an easy thing to do.) Several years ago Alan tracked down a cousin I haven't seen in over thirty years via the Internet and set up birthday celebration in Manhattan. Why a birthday get together? The three of us were borne in the same month, same year. During our phone conversations we would always talk about his beloved Penguins 🐧 and shared in the celebration of several Stanley Cups. I will miss my good friend. May his life be a blessing.

“ I am thinking of Joan who was his amazing partner over 30 years. She shared with me that Alan was in hospice care at home . He was a fighter. He touched the lives of so many and will be remembered in wonderful ways. My sympathy goes out to his entire family which he loved dearly. May he RIP and that his memory will be a blessing forever.
