“ As my baby brother, I often rocked him and sang him to sleep for my busy Mom....And loved to feed him a bottle. I often took him for walks in the stroller around the neighborhood. As he got a little older, Mom passed away when Tony was only 11...for the funeral, I took him shopping for his first suit and tried to spend time with him after my work day was over. As a newlywed, I often had him over for dinner and sleep overs. He was so talented...knew how to make an awesome pizza....that seems to run in the family! He sang and played guitar excellently! His CD recordings are still a family favorite. So many great memories of him. We will cherish them all. - Rosemarie Weleski (sister)
