“ Known for a short time but touched our hearts as it was a lifetime. A very extra special neighbor ❤️ I will remember you always and as I sit on my front porch I will still always see you on your tractor and enjoy my flowers you gave me as the pop up every year. God bless you sweet angel ❤️

Carol was a neighbor and a very good friend. Even though we didn't see each other as often when I moved from Dime Rd, it would seem like no time passed when we spoke. She gave me some great parenting tips that I still tell people today. I will miss you so much. I know you are in peace now with your mom, dad and brother. Rest easy Carol till we see each other again. Love you 🥰

“ My deepest sympathy to the family. She was the caregiver for both my parents. She was such a wonderful caring person. We lost mom a few weeks ago. Hopefully they're busy (as Carol called it) "junking" together once again! Lana Marsh
