

Carter Lindberg

June 4, 1951 - November 22, 2025

Carter Dubbs Lindberg left us today to be with her partner, parents and sister in heaven. Carter was a lifelong Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania area resident having been born in Sewickley and raised in Allison Park, most recently living in Beaver. Carters' friends and family remember her as a sweet soul, always kind and optimistic.

Carter attended Hampton High School and graduated in the class of 1969 still friends with several of her classmates. Carter starred as Calamity Jane in the high school singing brilliantly - we were all so proud of her. Carter also attended Penn St Univ. Carter was married to Jim Lindberg and most recently partners with Jim Peale who passed away last year. In recent years Carter could be found at Brighton Nursing Home playing cards and enjoying social events with her friends - they thought their "Cartie" was a sweet friend.

Carter is preceded in death by her parents Dean and Dottie as well as her sister Sarah and is survived in death by her sister Jane and brothers Brad and Ted.

A celebration of her life will take place in 2026, date to be announced.

Professional services trusted to D'Alessandro Funeral Home and Crematory Ltd., Lawrenceville.

“ She was the best Sister & still is saying hi fr heaven. U will see pic taken by mistake that has light coming fr heaven w/ an angel in the tree.

Am just able 2 write as was n a fog bt she is w/ God & our loved ones & wants us happy.

One funny story is we rode on back of motorcycles 2 church. She would watch my twin Ted & i when parents away & bt was cool, letting us have a party ha. We would play cards while I talked bout boys lol. She would always ask how u were doing & say she loved me no matter what she was going thru w/ a very positive disposition that got fr our Mom. She listened always. When I went 2 visit her at nursing home, she knew everyone & introduced me-so cute. She was like a 2nd Mom w/ 10 yrs apart. Will really miss her bt can still talk 2 her in heaven where she has no more pain, sickness or sorrow. As one fr her nursing home said beautiful Sunshine, that's my sweet Sister, Cart.
