

Cathryn Coblin

January 6, 1941 - April 8, 2026

Cathryn Diane Coblin, beloved wife of the late Stuart Coblin; father of Harvey Coblin (Jennifer); grandmother of James Coblin, passed peacefully on Wednesday, April 8, 2026. She is preceded in death by her parents, Colonel William H. Tarrant, Sr. and Aline (McQuaig) Tarrant, and siblings Beverly Dye, Bobbi Geer, and Tyler Tarrant. She is survived by siblings William "Buddy" Tarrant (Kay), Ernest "Ernie" Tarrant (Carolyn) and Patrick Tarrant (Anny). A graduate of William & Mary College (BS), Cathryn met the love of her life, Stuart, who she married in 1962.

Cathryn was an educator for over 35 years, starting her career teaching high school in Lima, Ohio. After moving to Pittsburgh, Cathryn found her home teaching American History at Jefferson Junior High School in Mt. Lebanon. During her tenure with the school district, Cathryn earned a Master's degree from Carnegie Mellon University. After retirement, Cathryn enjoyed volunteering at Mt. Lebanon Public Library. She and Stuart chased adventure through traveling the world, often being teased that they had "been everywhere - twice." After the passing of Stuart, Cathryn was a resident of Asbury Heights where she was known for her sweet smile, gentle personality and always having a book with her.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests a donation to the Mt. Lebanon Public Library (mtlebanonlibrary.salsalabs.org).
