“ When I was a boy my sister took me to the movies, it was a Godzilla movie ☐. When I was a young man struggling on his own, my sister invited me into her home to watch football and enjoy Sunday dinner. I enjoyed the meal and hearing my sister's hearty laughter. I don't need to go to the movies anymore. I don't need football anymore. But I do need to hear my sister's laughter. My sister was Christine Scott 😭

“ When Chris went out on her own and got her own apartment in Oakland, she often invited her little sister to stay over night She was Mary Tyler Moore in my eyes. A beautiful, strong and independent woman. She lived her whole life that way; as well as having a beautiful family. RIP 🥰💋😭 Peggy
