

Cleveland Mallory

October 29, 1953 - September 2, 2017

Cleveland "Butch" Mallory age 63, of Pittsburgh, passed away on September 2, 2017. Son of the late Ruth Mallory. Beloved brother of Donna (Mallory) Coleman and Ronald Mallory. Cleveland served his country in the US Navy. He leaves to mourn two nephews and one niece, one great nephew, two great nieces and a host of extended family and friends. Butch will always be remembered for his love of the Steelers.

Tribute Wall

“ Cleveland Mallory

January 13, 2023 at 04:43 PM

“ 2022--12--03: Cleveland, I never met you in person but I just finished reading Marv Truhe's book about what happened on the USS Kitty Hawk so many years ago. I just want to say you were a brave young man with maturity beyond your years. You experienced so much in your lifetime. I give you my respect for what you went through. I hope for the greatest of peace for you, you earned it. I salute you. Abel Hernandez Jr. USAF (retired)

Abel Hernandez Jr. - December 03, 2022 at 07:12 AM

Mr. Abel Hernandez Jr. thank you for the kind words about my brother Cleveland Mallory.

Donna Coleman - February 18, 2023 at 10:12 AM

“ Constance Bland lit a candle in memory of Cleveland Mallory

Constance Bland - September 13, 2017 at 11:53 PM

CB

“ May our prayers and thoughts be with the Mallory family during your time of grief. May your fond memories of your time spent together with your brother sustain you.
From your friends, The Bland's in Charlotte, NC.

Constance Bland - September 13, 2017 at 11:52 PM

RM

Connie thank you so much that was very thoughtful Ronald your friend Pittsburgh PA

ronald Mallory - September 17, 2017 at 07:20 PM

AJ

“ Sending our prayers to the family cousin Butch you will be truly miss we would keep everyone in our prayers love you

Ava Jones - September 08, 2017 at 12:01 AM

RM

Amen to that. Thank you for your prayers

ronald Mallory - September 09, 2017 at 10:24 PM