“ Coach Carmen treated me like a son, from letting me hang out at the house all the time, to letting me work at Sbarro's during winter break from college. He believed in me so much, until this day I would see him and he would talk about how good of a baseball player I was. Felt good....Rest in Peace Mr Carmen.

“ I have so many memories of him. All of which were good. He always made me smile and laugh. May you forever rest in peace. You were such a great Uncle. But an awesome Father and grandfather. I love you always “ David was my fellow Crawford Elementary School Friend. Always a pleasant and positive person. Our shared experiences will remain with me the rest of my days.

The Duquesne of our youth was made special by people like Dave and we are all better people for having the pleasure of him in our lives.

Our prayers for endurance to the family at this time of your loss.
