

David Lee Powell

May 25, 1931 - July 21, 2022

David L. Powell

Age 91, died on July 21, 2022. Son of James and Mabel Spicer, and his adoptive father Foster Powell of Bloomington (Ind.). Predeceased by his brothers William, James and Terry Spicer and his sister Mary-Lou Baugh. Beloved former partner of Ronald L. Booth. David grew up in Bloomington in humble circumstances but through his charm, wit and perseverance launched his career first as an intelligence officer in the Korean War and then in his long service to Japan Airlines as a marketing specialist, followed by a stint with El Al Airlines. An avid world traveler, he made countless people happy with his planning, his stories, and his impeccable style. In his later years he was lucky to be taken in by the South Western Veterans Center, who provided superb and loving care.

A memorial will be planned later in the year. Professional services trusted to D'ALESSANDRO FUNERAL HOME & CREMATORY LTD., Lawrenceville. www.dalessandro ltd.com.
