*Fond memories of little Derrick fill my mind as the friendship of neighbors growing up together, watching the children play. Remember the word of God in the king James Bible says absent from the body present with the Lord. This is not our home ,we are only here temporarily. It is God himself who has a time set to call us home. In the Old Testament of the Bible king Davids servants asked him why he wasn't fasting and crying ,and praying that the child might live. King David said all the crying and praying can't bring him back again, but I can go and be with him again some day. God tells us if we believe and confess that Jesus is the Christ come in the flesh to die for our sins and that the blood that was shed as they stabbed him in the side was for the forgiveness of our sins so that we won't have to sprinkle the blood at the alter of a lamb like they did in the Old Testament, but once and for all Jesus came from sitting at the right hand of the father in heaven to be that perfect sacrifice so that if we only believe he died for our sins and ask Gods forgiveness all sins past and future will be forgiven and we shall have eternal life. It will be a big reunion we will all be together again one day. When this happened to my son God anointed me 23 times and let me know my son was with him. Our child is with our Heavenly Father he's in better hands than ours. I told them at this funeral don't cry the angels are rejoicing, one has come home and has eternal life. A new body without sin in it looking the same just like Jesus did when he came back. If he was in hell then we'd have a reason to cry. They are watching us from Heaven above, wave and blow a kiss to them, talk to them. God may even allow him to come in your presence someday to comfort you. I Felt his anointing as I said that to you it is called the gift of prophecy. God putting a thought in my mind to speak to you through me as he did to me about my son. May the Lord bless you and keep you and make His face to smile upon you.
