

Donald D. DiLucente

May 2, 1949 - April 2, 2019

DONALD 'COBB' DiLUCENTE

Suddenly on April 2, 2019, just a month shy of his 70th birthday. Donald was born in Rankin, PA and was the youngest son of Felice and Assunta DiLucente. After receiving his Bachelor of Arts in Mathematics, he taught at several Catholic schools before joining the faculty of Seton-LaSalle High School, where he continued teaching until his retirement in 2012. Donald also spent many years coaching Girls Basketball teams in the area. He was an avid golfer and also enjoyed traveling and gambling!

Donald never married or had children and was predeceased by his parents as well as all 5 of his siblings. He leaves behind many nieces, nephews and cousins as well as many friends who will miss him and his crazy sense of humor tremendously. Family and friends are welcome to the Gravesite Ceremony for Donald on Saturday, June 15th at 10:30 AM at All Saints Cemetery , 1560 Brinton Road, Braddock Hills.

Professional Services trusted to D'Alessandro Funeral Home and Crematory Ltd., Lawrenceville. www.dalessandroLtd.com

Tribute Wall

“ Donald D. DiLucente

---

January 13, 2023 at 04:43 PM

“ *Many good memories of Cobb from Hilltop YMCA days more than fifty years ago when we served as summer camp counselors. He danced at our wedding and played softball with a group of guys and always had a joke. A good man who passed away way too soon.
Bob and Georgann Jenkins*

---

georgann Jenkins - June 09, 2019 at 03:45 PM