“ The measure of a man is the lives he's touched.

Ernie Banks

The measure of a great man is that those lives that he has touched will go on to exhibit those same qualities he possessed even after he has gone. My Uncle Don was a great man, great husband, great father, great pap, great brother, great uncle, great coworker and great friend. Uncle Don touched he lives of all those he met. He was a "Jack of all trades" and was always willing to lend his time and expertise to help anyone that needed it! All you had to do was ask! Uncle Don came from a long line of "hard working" Schueler men and women who possessed a strong work ethic not only at work but in everything done in life. Always keeping busy. Although we grieve his loss with you Aunt Jan, Eric (Linda), Elissa (John), Wyatt, Donovan, Killian, Keegan, Kristian, and Krystoff, I truly believe that he lives on through all of us because of the impact he has had on all of our lives! Uncle Don, we will honor your memory by living our lives the way that you did by always doing our best and helping others as much as we can! I'm sure that you and dad are already fixing something in heaven! We love you! We miss you but we know that you will always be looking out for us!

Much love,

Mary (Michael, Niccolo, Sophia and Gianna)

“ Aunt Jan, Eric, Linda, Elissa, John, Wyatt, Donovan, Killian, Keegan, Kristian, Krystoff,

During family gatherings while growing up I remember Uncle Don being around but a quiet presence. However, if he had something to say, you listened. He was always generous with his knowledge of many things. Our old house wouldn't have electric in parts of it without his expertise. When he would bring the family to visit us in Ohio he would always add something to the gatherings. The most memorable year was the fireworks that almost burned up the Ping-pong table outside.

Uncle Don also had "movie star" qualities. We told many friends about the famous elevator scene in "Silence of the Lambs". We watched it in the theater and screamed when we saw his cameo appearance. We yelled, "That's Uncle Don!"

Our more recent visits to Aunt Jan and Uncle Don's house were quieter affairs. We usually indulged in some excellent Italian and Chinese cuisine. Our cousins and their children would stop in to visit. Uncle Don was usually in "his" chair. The past several years there was a grandson or two sitting in that chair with him. They were usually cheering (or complaining) about the Steelers or Penguins.

We miss you already. Every time we make our Pittsburgh visit now and look at "your" chair our hearts will be heavy. Say hi to dad for us. Losing two Schueler patriarchs in one year is a crushing blow for us, but a blessing for Heaven. Heaven gained another special man, Uncle Don.

“ You and I have been friends since high school, Jan, and more recently, closer than before. Your Don was such a wonderful man and we always enjoyed the times he came to our high school monthly lunches and other times. We share in your loss. God rest his soul and may he be at peace. We love you and are here for you. Be at peace knowing he is no longer suffering from his terrible accident. Deepest sympathy. Mary Ann and Bob Pflumm

“ Uncle Don was the best! I loved going to Pittsburgh and staying with Uncle Don and Aunt Jan throughout the years. They were always so welcoming and had the BEST snacks. I will do my best to make Uncle Don and my grandpa proud. I know they are up in Heaven together watching the Steelers play. They are our guardian angels now. Love and miss you so much Uncle Don. Rest In Peace 🙏❤️😊
