“ It Still shakes me everytime I think about you. I Still cant accept the fact that you have gone. Still expecting to see you around town with that big ol shinning smile on your face! always ready to help someone else no matter what you were going through yourself. always there to keep us laughing. so many memories I will cherish, so many times we hung out all night just laughing, listening to music. just jammin out, hanging out talking about nothing at all and everything all at once, not a care in the world. Walking around town all hours of the night just to pass the time and be with friends. your memory and that contagious smile are forever in my heart. I will always miss you Dylan...

Dylan.... I love you. Our bond was inseparable. I miss the years we spent together and our long talks while miles apart. The day I met you was one of the most amazing days of my life... I gained a brother for life. Dad has you in his arms now. You're no longer suffering. I will keep you in the hearts of my children, never to be forgotten. They too, love you more than words can say. You were a good best friend, uncle and brother. You will forever be with me in heart. With love, Tara Nicole Forsythe.
