“ My sympathies to Libby and all of the family. Eddie was someone we all looked up to in the neighborhood. He was our basketball coach, our friend, a mentor to many. Always a smile on his face and a kind word to offer. A true leader in our community. He left a big impact on all who knew him. God Bless You Eddie. Rest In Peace.

“ Ed was a basketball coach with my dad (Jim Toomey) for St. Kieran's in 1971 to 1974, I believe. He was always so nice to all of us kids.

Oh Mr Rupp...I'll never forget you. I'll always remember that bouncy walk, that wonderful sense of humor and the kindness you showed on the basketball court...but more importantly, I'll always remember the love you had for Libby. Bringing you two together was one of the best things I ever did. I'll miss you Mr. Rupp. ❤️
