“ Errol Steven Siegel and I were best friends for years. We lived a half block from each other, maybe from about 1963 to around 1967, shared stories of growing up, of his father snatching him off the plane while a very young child and gaining custody -he the son of Major Herbert J. Siegel, and stepmother Louise, brother Jerry and Sister Patty. We went on bike hikes, took trips on motorscooters, and I turned him onto BMW motorcycles. I remember we were like brothers. I last saw him when I was visiting the 'burgh and had supper with my family at La Famiglia up on Mt. Washington. Errol you were an important part of my growing up, and I am grateful to have known you. A.E. Tishman

“ I remember the times when we went out for breakfast, got together with Sergeant Slaughter and went downtown to watch wrestling, hanging out at Blooms Cigars. You even joined me on my radio show a couple times. Errol, such a special guy and (as Errol would say) a pretty fart smeller, I MEAN, a pretty "smart feller". Miss you buddy, Vince Venditti
