“ I have so many sweet and wonderful memories of Mrs. Mitchell. She made growing up on Lily Drive special. She always welcomed me into her home with a smile and treated me like family. My favorite childhood memories of her were the countless times she watched our backyard parades and talent shows with enthusiasm! What a lovely person. My family and I are blessed to have known her. Joan and family, you are all in our prayers. Heaven has a new Angel.

“ Aunt Honey (as I have called her since I was born, apparently I could not pronounce Georgeann), was one of the three mothers I had in my life. My mother (her sister), my Nana (her mother) and Aunt Honey provided me with a very comforting environment to grow up in. I knew I could contact Aunt Honey no matter what was going on in my life or where I was in the world and she would listen with patience and understanding. She was a constant in my life that provided me with a true compass for me to follow. The faith I had growing up and today is strong because of her strong and steady faithfulness in God. I will truly miss her but know she has been welcomed with open arms in heaven.

"We know that the same God who brought the Lord Jesus back from death will also bring us back to life again with Jesus and present us to Him along with you." II Corinthians 4:14

*Love you always,
George*

“ My first memories of Mrs. M (as I called her) were her coming to pick up Joan from work with Ethan in the car. I would walk down with Joan to see them every day and say hello. As I got to know Mrs. M on a more personal level, I found her to be such a warm, caring and kind person. The only exception is when I wore leopard print - she made it known she didn't like me wearing that pattern :). I will truly miss seeing her when I visit Joan or hearing her in the background on the phone to say hello to me. She was a wonderful person and I won't forget her.

“ My favorite memory would be going to church every Sunday. She is the reason I go to the church I go to, and the reason my faith is where it is today.

“ As a child you learn a lot from your parents, and I learned how to make the best friendships by watching my mother and “Mrs Mitchell” , (which I will always refer to her as.). Share a special bond. I will also, remember her as pictured,... smiling and chuckling. She could light up a room. I spent time in the old homestead off of Mt Royal Blvd, watching the neighbor kids come and go from the house, as if it were theirs. And laughing that they tied their dog to the basement stairs railing, so he could come upstairs for a drink from the toilet, (yes it's true) or go out the back door , but not run away. And I remember her biggest joy , Joans birth. A surprise later in her life, but it proved to be more than a blessing, for her youngest was able to love and care for her throughout her remaining years . I'm hoping Joan and her family can find solace and peace

“ I'm so thankful for my special friendship and bond that I shared with Georgeann. Our husbands Karl and Bob worked together and shared a similar special bond as well. Georgeann was always there for me and I for her, through all the good times and some very sad times too. Our friendship was a blessing that not all people get to experience. I'll always remember her beautiful smile and loving chuckle. She was the epitome of a True Christian, loving, kind , forgiving and helpful for everyone and anyone who needed help or a kind word. Ill will miss her dearly and loved her with all my heart Look kindly on us from heaven, my dearest friend,
Ruth Feitl.
