

Henry Charles Blum

February 18, 1942 - July 16, 2018

Henry C. Blum (Hank) Age 76, of Stanton Heights, passed away peacefully at home surrounded by his loving family on July 16, 2018. Henry is survived by his beloved wife of 54 years, Louisa (Sabatasso) Blum, daughters Lisa (John) Besselman, Karen Blum, Heather (Michael) Fallon. Grandchildren, Elizabeth and Michael Besselman, Emily, Amber and Leah Fallon. He was preceded in death by his parents, Harry and Anne (Cava) Blum. Brother of Maureen (Frank) Stagno, beloved uncle of Jennifer (Bill) Trey Hensley of Houston, TX and Brian (Kristi) Gabe and Simon Stagno, also survived by many nieces and nephews. He had over a 50 year career with the Civic Arena, he was a labor leader for public events employee union, served on the PWSA board and was also the director of the Columbus Day Parade. He drove the Zamboni for the Penguins for many years. Services are private.

Tribute Wall

“ Henry Charles Blum

January 13, 2023 at 04:43 PM

“ *Dear Louise, Lisa, Karen, Heather,
I just learned of Hank's passing, I am so sorry for your loss.*

JoAnn Stupka - October 03, 2018 at 11:22 PM