

Henry T. Brown

May 29, 1961 - August 24, 2021

Henry T. Brown (Hanky) was born in Pittsburgh, PA. on May 29, 1961. He was one of the 11 "Brown Boys" born to the late William H. and Francis 'Dubby' Thompson-Brown. His siblings included William Lacardo Smith (Tawn), The late Darvin Carlos Smith (Boo- Boo), Gary Reid-Brown, Cardell Nino Brown Sr. (NeNe), Edward Alphonso Brown (Pig), Johnathan Brown (Porky), Ronald Brown (Ronnie), James Regis Brown (Jim-Jim), Jerome Frank Brown (Rome), and William Brown (Be-Be). Family was everything to Hanky. His sons and grandchildren meant the world to him. He leaves to mourn 3 beloved sons who loved him dearly and will forever cherish his memory: Marcus Gibson, Henry Wade, and Raevon Gibson (Dink), as well as 6 grandchildren who are blessed and gifted with his honorable legacy: Rayd'von E. Harris, Ky'rae L. Harris Wade, Julius A. Wade, Julianna A. Wade, the late Marcus Gibson Jr., Maryah Gibson, and Breona Gibson.

Hanky was baptized at an early age, and accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior. He attended the Pittsburgh Public schools and also graduated from Triangle Tech system of technical schools as a certified welder of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Afterwards, Hanky was accepted into the Boilermakers Union Apprenticeship program as one of the youngest recruits where he received his Journeyman's papers. He retired with over 35 years of dedicated service.

During his extracurricular activities Hanky was an avid bingo player, an active member of

The Riding High Motorcycle Club, a horse jockey who owned several horses and love, love, love to ride them while wearing his Indian bonnet, a movie buff connoisseur; expert on cinema and films, and he often boast about his excellent cooking skills who was known to put his foot down in the dishes that he so eloquently and freeheartedly served (every and anyone in need). Hanky was also known to cut a rug, dancing the night away with his two step side-to-side smooth moves when his jams played. A child at heart Hanky was a collector of vintage video arcade games amongst many other things. To know Hanky was to love Hanky because he loved unconditionally and through his sickness never once complained.

Hanky departed this life on August 23, 2021, in the Montefiore Medical Center-Hospital.

His lasting memories will forever live on through his brothers and sister-in-law, William

Lacardo Smith, Gary Reid-Brown, Cardell Nino Brown Sr., (Reneé Drummond-Brown),

Edward Alphonso Brown, Johnathan Brown, Ronald Brown, James Regis Brown, Jerome

Frank Brown, and William Brown, children: Marcus Gibson, Henry Wade, and Raevon

Gibson, grandchildren: Rayd'von E. Harris, Ky'rae L. Harris Wade, Julius A. Wade, Julianna A. Wade, Maryah Gibson, and Breona Gibson, nieces, nephews, relatives 'and a host of dear friends.

Hanky was preceded in death by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, brother Darwin

Carlos Smith, and grandson the late Marcus Gibson Jr.

“ On behalf of Peter C. Drummond, Renee Drummond-Brown, Rocco, Dee-Dee (Tony), and Raven Brown, we are truly sorry for your families heartfelt loss. Though you will never get over the loss of Hanky, with God, you can get through it; hold onto his precious memories and this Scripture to get you through the hard-times: "Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him" John 14:1-7 King James Version (KJV). We as a 'strong' Drummond family standing in unity are keeping your family lifted up in prayer. Peace be still. Amen and Amen. Renee Drummond-Brown and family.
