“ Words cannot express the sorrow that I feel for you. No parent should ever have to lose a child. Our loving Creator knows how hard this is on you. We are told at Ezekiel 18:32 “I do not take any pleasure in the death of anyone, declares the Sovereign Lord.” As you can see, He does not like death any more than we do. It is not his will for us to die which is why He has given us the hope of everlasting life! (Psalms 37:9-11, 29; Rev. 21:3, 4). As the God and Father of tender mercies, He wants you to find comfort in him through prayer (2Cor 1:3).

“ Micah and I were thankful to get to babysit Mr. Jack, Adele, and Charlie. At the time he was busy into robots, and he loved to get into one particular robot suit. He loved looking at the front window, and his little siblings would try and climb the sofa to follow him.

I enjoyed creating crafts with him, including paper ornaments to put on his Christmas tree. He was a smart kid. He would work in a particular workbook, and I remember saying, “Wow, you are good at this, Mr. Jack.”

What I loved and love about Jack the most is his kind spirit. During that short time of sitting, I was struck by how he loved his siblings well. He cared about their well being. He was thoughtful. He would make us laugh with his joy. Two things I think of when I think Jack are Buddy and Mr. Jack: He was your buddy, and he knew how to make you smile. He was kind: I respected him a lot. Jack knows the Lord, and it was evident back then by his spirit. I look forward to the day, when I get to see him again — him already safe and present with the Savior.
