

Jacqueline Henle Brown

August 28, 1939 - July 19, 2023

BROWN, Jacqueline "Jackie" Henle, formerly Highland Park

Jacqueline Henle Brown, age 83, died on July 19, 2023. Treasured wife of the late Peter, cherished mother of Alicia (Charles) Angemeer. Beloved relation of the Rescher, Henle, and Brown families. Jackie was born on August 28, 1939, in Pittsburgh, the daughter of the late Frank and Sophie (Dubrawski) Henle; sister of Dorothy Rescher and the late Conrad Henle. Raised in Lawrenceville, she graduated from St. Augustine High School and was the first in her family to attend college, Jackie earned a B.S. in Education and Psychology from Carlow College, a M.Ed. in Rehabilitation Counseling and Psychology from the University of Pittsburgh, and a Ph.D. from Pitt in Foundations of Education. Jackie accepted the challenge to join the Peace Corps, serving in Jamaica. She had a varied career as Executive Director of the Lawrenceville Economic Action Program (LEAP) and then 20 years with the Internal Revenue Service. Erudite, empathetic, witty, and bold, Jackie was a friend and support to many, always ready to find perspective and humor in a situation. Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at St. Augustine Church, 234 37th Street, Lawrenceville, at 10:00 a.m., on Wednesday. In lieu of flowers, her family suggests a donation to Brother's Brother Foundation.

“ Alicia has been my best friend since high school, and her mom and dad were like a second set of parents to me. Like Pete, Jacque was warm, whip smart, and jovial. Always incredibly kind and generous with me, she (and her husband) will always have a special place in my heart. I'm fortunate that I had many, many chances to spend time with both of them over the years, most recently with her mom a few years ago. Sending peace and love to the family and everyone who loved her. — Renee
