“ I didn't Jimmy but I do know his father and step mother. They both wanted the best for you in every way. They always bragged to me how smart you were. You are now in peace and do not have to chase that devil any longer. Rest in peace Jimmy. Please give your dad a sign that you are with him. Judy Trimmer

“ Jimmy’s grandmother Naomi loved him fiercely and thought the world of him. His mother Marge passed when Jimmy was very young and though he didn’t know her well he had her smile. He passed that smile on to his son Mason.

As I had said before, I did not know the man that was an addict but I did know the boy who was my step brother. He will always be that little boy to me.
