“ Dear Jean,

It's hard to say goodbye. I've missed you so much. You were always a true friend and I felt your friendship in my heart. I'm so sorry you had to endure so much suffering. I'll always remember all the fun times we had, like b&b'ing in West Virginia at a music festival to parties at our homes. Finally all the meals we shared that fed our hunger and our souls . I'm sorry I haven't been around for the last 7 years, but some things are beyond control. Thanks for being such a caring person. No one who met you could ever forget you, I know I won't. I just wish I could have help ease some of your pain. Go with God and be free my dear sweet friend. 💜🙏🏻🕊️

“ Amanda and I wouldn't have so much in our lives to be grateful for if it wasn't for Jean and Sherry. They introduced us to our church and in turn to a whole world of possibilities and loving people. Jean and Sherry both taught me at Sanford-Brown. As a work-study Jean would always make me laugh and share stories and just make me feel respected and cared about. The love that Sherry and Jean share is so true and rare. It is an inspiration to see two people so in love with each other and so outwardly caring of others.
I am so sorry for this heavy loss for Sherry and the girls. So much love is being sent <3

I didn't get to visit with Jean very much, but I know a sweet soul when I am in the presence of one. Loved seeing you at the hotel when you visited my beach. I will forever associate you with the sweet warm sand, and the refreshing smell of the ocean breeze. I will see you in the diamonds that sparkle on the sea on those special mornings when the sun awakens. And you will forever sail on the wings of the shorebirds.
