“ Love Didi! She was such a blessing to me as a little girl. She cared for me just as if she had given birth to me more than I can count she offered me a bed to sleep on, food to fill my belly, a shoulder to cry on, a hand to hold, ear to listen, and most importantly a handful of candy whenever I wanted!!!!

My Aunt Di-Di, you are indeed a rare precious diamond. I remember you always loving on me so hard from my childhood to Adulthood, your courage & bold display of doing things your way & not caring who thought and said what throughout life I envy & adopted from you, the unselfish love you have given to each of us brings me to tears, I will miss your stories about your Brother Pete, my Father. Party on sweet Angel and Kiss my Dad for me. Until we meet again.
