“ My time with Monk goes back to high school. We ran together on the Mars track team and played basketball. He was incredibly strong physically and mentally and a fierce competitor. He loved to have a good time. He was a good man, father and husband. I will miss you my friend. God bless.

“ Johnny was a kind “older” cousin. We grew up as neighbors all through our school years at Mars. I think he graduated in ‘71, I was ‘76. Before he moved “on top of the hill,” our homes were next to each other. When we were young you could buy tiny painted turtles and alligators at the circus or traveling shows. Johnny got an alligator, “Chomp” much to the dismay of Aunt Margie. We all heard Aunt Margie yelling when she found Chomp swimming in the bathtub (the only bathtub in the house back then). I’m not saying Chomp found a new home in the Breakneck creek in Myoma, but I did have some some nightmares after that.

We FaceTimed a few weeks before he joined his family in heaven. He spoke of how he loved his wife who was taking good care of him “but she is always bringing me more food to eat” and he just wasn’t hungry. And how he loved his kids and grandkids. Johnny will be missed by many. ❤️
