“ *Joey,
My heart goes out to you and all the family who have lost this wonderful man, father, brother, uncle, friend. You loved and cared for him when he needed you most.
When I saw him in August, I was so shocked at how much he looked like my dad. Now the brothers are together. I hope that there's beer in heaven. They're having a cold one together if there is! Prayers for all. I wish I could be with you.

“ So glad that I got to share some special moments with Uncle Joe last summer. He was not feeling well that day, but, nonetheless, he was lucid and articulate, and shared memories of times when he and Dad were kids. We offspring of the Parker siblings are so lucky to have the good brain longevity genes. Rest in peace, Uncle Joe!
