“ When Kelly met you we already lived hours apart. Our friendship with Kelly has been lifelong and although we couldn't see each other often...when trips were made to eastern PA we would get to spend some time together. In my heart you were already family. It was like we had known each other our whole lives also. Your love for Kelly and how you cared for each other was obvious. What more could we ask for her. I wish we had been able to see each other one more time.....its always a regret when you say we'll see ya next time and then there isn't another next time. Rest in Peace Joyce.....I know where you are....I pray that the Lord finds me worthy to come to Heaven and see you again. Love, Lori

“ My memories of you and Joyce are all connected to church things: you're involvement in synod assemblies, picnics and worship at St Andrew, and most of all your loving friendship with Miranda and CE. You both were wonderful bonus aunties for Miranda, important loving presences for her to help shape her life and a sense of self. I am grateful for Joyce, and her gentle spirit, her easy smile, and her love for others. I am so sorry for your loss, Kelly, and for all her/your family and friends. I will be holding you in my heart on saturday, and in the days and weeks and months and years to come. Sending you lots of love.
