“ Grampa.. I never could have imagined a world without you in it, you were the person I asked for advise for everything and anything.. I’ve seen you almost everyday since I was 9.. the last time I got to talk to you we were talking about the cherry blossoms and how much you loved them.. I added a picture I took for you. I will always and forever brag about your cooking and how everything you made was so much better. I will always miss hearing you crack a joke, you laughing or just having a conversation about weather or not we would survive a zombie apocalypse.. you helped mom raise me when my dad couldn’t.. and at the same time you did a great job at being my grandpa as well as my dad. Thank you for always believing in me and supporting my crazy ideas. I love you so much Grampa. Always and forever.

I asked him what song he would play if the end of the world came he sent me: Dreams ill never see by Molly Hatchet
