“ Ken, we are so sorry for your loss. Lana will be greatly missed. She was always thinking of others first and never had a negative word about anyone. Our prayers and thoughts are with you.

“ Ken, I will miss going to Pirate, Steelers and Pitt games with the two of you, and having my friend Lana to take painting classes, teas and spontaneous coffee dates with. Her smile was contagious. Heaven gained an angel. You are in my prayers.

“ Ken, what heartbreaking news. Your love for each other was so relentless and sweet. I know that your faith gives you strength and comfort as her soul returns to the Father. Still - Lana's bright, beautiful smile and sunny personality were an uplifting breeze that will be deeply missed. I'm so glad that I got to know her even briefly. Mental hugs and lots of love to you as you navigate this loss of your best friend and loving wife. Jeaneen Z.

“ Lana, Irish eyes may be smiling now that you are with your heavenly family, but ours have tears. I will miss your wide smile and stories you shared with me about “our” Aunt Helene and your Uncle Frank. Thank you, may you RIP in Christ’s loving arms.
