

Lawrence L. Longo

August 28, 1948 - November 21, 2025

It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of Lawrence L. Longo who departed this life on November 21, 2025, at the age of 77. A lifelong resident of Bloomfield, Pennsylvania. Lawrence was a cherished son, brother, uncle, and friend whose gentle spirit will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

Born to Maurice Longo Sr. and Mary (Licata) Longo, Lawrence grew up surrounded by a close-knit family. He proudly served his country as a Private in the United States Army from 1968 to 1970, embodying dedication and honor in all he did.

Following his service, Lawrence worked at a local hospital cafeteria and later at Bloomfield Drug where he was known for his dependable nature and the warm familiar presence he brought to his coworkers and community members alike.

Lawrence is survived by his twin brother Maurice C. Longo Jr. and wife Rosemarie. He is also the beloved brother of the late Lenora Longo, Frank Longo, Nancy (Longo) Santapaolo (John Santapaolo), and Rosealie (Longo) Dowling (Terry Dowling). He leaves behind 8 nieces and nephews, John, Larry, Lizette, Teresa, Patrick, Donna, Robert and Melissa and 16 great-nieces and nephews

Though quiet and humble in nature, Lawrence's impact was deeply felt by those around him. May his soul rest in eternal peace.

Visitation will be held on Saturday, November 29 from 2pm-4pm and 6pm until service beginning at 7:30pm at D'Alessandro Funeral Home & Crematory, 4522 Butler Street St., Lawrenceville. Burial will be private.

“ So very sorry to read of the passing of Larry. We both were in the same grade throughout Elementary, Middle and Jr High at Immaculate Conception School located in the Bloomfield area of Pittsburgh. He was shy, quiet, and just a nice schoolmate. Later in life I so enjoyed our talks when shopping at Bloomfield Drugs . We talked about our school days and schoolmates, the daily happenings around the neighborhood, health issues, aging, the lottery, even politics from time to time. I have missed seeing him and our interaction. He will be deeply missed. My deepest sympathy. Eternal rest grant unto Larry o Lord and let your perpetual light shine upon him. May he Rest in Peace. 🕊
