

Lee Ryan Mancuso

February 19, 1969 - June 7, 2025

Lee Ryan Mancuso, 56, of Gibsonia, Pennsylvania, tragically passed away from ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease) on Saturday, June 7th, 2025. Lee was a very thoughtful and kind soul who brought happiness to everyone around him. Lee was born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania on February, 19, 1969. He attended Peabody High School, where he excelled as the Highlander's quarterback. His outgoing personality also shined in high school theater productions as well as fashion modeling. After graduation in 1988, Lee obtained an associate's degree in accounting. He worked in government agencies including ATF and Allegheny County CYF. He later worked as a senior accountant at Carnegie Mellon University where he was employed for 14 years. He was the beloved brother of W David Mancuso, and Sister-in-law, Dr. Wendy R Kaufer, uncle of David Tyler Mancuso, and a great friend to many that respected his friendship and adored him. A private service for friends and family will be held in the near future.

“ I met Lee in Sunnyside around 1979 then we went to Arsenal and then we graduated from Peabody in 1988. He and I would walk home many days from Peabody up Stanton Avenue to Stanton Heights where we both resided. We use to Crack jokes and talk about girls the entire way. He was a blast to be around and he will be deeply missed. I am quite shocked to hear of his passing. My deepest condolences to his Family. 🙏

“ David and family,
I'm so sad to hear about Lee. It's been so long, yet still seems like yesterday since we all hung hung out in North Hills or my place in West View. The times we had were so fun. Prayers for you and your family.

“ To Lee's Family,
I'm saddened to hear about the passing of Lee. I'm still in shock. We were a couple from 2000 until 2006. I met Lee at my bus stop in downtown Pittsburgh, and from the moment we laid eyes on each other, we were both smitten. He loved me unconditionally and loved my family who in return loved him. He had the greatest smile and sense of humor. I'll never forget him and the love we shared. Rest in peace Lee. You will be greatly missed.
