“ Lucine was my Theta sorority sister at Albion College. She was very smart, very artistic, very independent and always had a great smile and chuckle whenever we spoke. We spent our junior years abroad at different schools in France and visited each other during those, for us, wonderful, carefree years of the late '60s. I remember admiring her wisdom and maturity at an age when I was still struggling so hard to find myself. As in life, even in death, she was my Wayshower. Brave, brave soul! Now you are free and can breathe and fly again...dearest Lucinemarine. With love and gratitude, Donnaestelle

“Lucine was my oldest and dearest friend. We met in art school at the University of Wisconsin-Madison in the 1970s and over the years, created many collaborative artworks together. She was one of the most significant people in my young life and we only grew closer. I will miss her lighthearted and quirky personality more than I can say.
