Lynda Musser Belloma

Lynda Musser Belloma passed away on February 24, 2026, following a brief illness. Lynda was, quite simply, a force of nature: fierce, brilliant, and beautiful. The world is a little more predictable and far less rich without her.

Born Lynda Elizabeth Sweeney on October 22, 1948, in Pittsburgh, she was the daughter of the late John Redmond Sweeney and Mary Elizabeth Sweeney (Harrison). Her childhood followed her father's engineering career—from Philadelphia to New Jersey and Lancaster, PA—where she learned to make fast friends wherever she went.

She had a call to service and strong sense of justice that led her to decades volunteering and organizing within the Democratic Party and the Pittsburgh AA community, where she formed deep, enduring friendships. Her fondest memories were at the beach in Cape May, New Jersey.

Lynda was preceded in death by her husband, Gary Lee Belloma and her daughter, Leah Mary Belloma.

She is survived by her children: Monica Musser Henderson and Stephen T Musser, Jr. both of Atlanta, GA; Rachel, Anthony, and Nicholas Belloma all of Pittsburgh; her sister, Carol Simpson of Lancaster, PA; and her five grandchildren, who were her pride and joy: Rowan, Regan, Heron, Atlas, and Lucia.

Family and friends are invited to celebrate Lynda's vibrant life and legacy from 4-8 PM on Friday, March 20, at D'Alessandro Funeral Home & Crematory Ltd., 4522 Butler St., Pittsburgh, PA 15201.
