“ You are in my prayers. Me and Marcia had long wonderful conversations and there were times when I felt down and she made me feel better with words of wisdom.

“ Marcia was our babysitter for years when we were growing up on Northumberland St. I remember one of her boyfriends used to come over to visit sometimes and he would get our boxer so excited he'd have an accident. (Weird memory, I know). Marcia was always very sweet and my parents trusted her completely. Fran babysat for us as well sometimes.

Love and hugs to you all -- On behalf of my brothers Jay & Lee, as well as myself, we send our deepest sympathy.
