

Mark J. Hrehocik

October 23, 1962 - August 25, 2022

HREHOCIK, Mark

My loving, kind, quiet, funny, positive, gentle, confident, and smart husband, Mark Joseph

Hrehocik, crossed over the threshold of this world to the next on August 25, 2022, at age 59

from dementia caused by sinonasal undifferentiated carcinoma and treatment.

Born in and faithful to his Mon Valley roots, Mark was the epitomized Pittsburgher, holding only two jobs in his life: working a game booth at Kennywood Amusement Park and enjoying a 36-year career as a mechanical engineer at Bechtel Bettis Atomic Power Laboratory. A proud Slovak and the youngest of seven raised in Glassport, PA, Mark believed in both the simple joys of life and in working hard while pacing oneself. Mark loved mentoring younger engineers, spending time with his three children (Michael, Ben, and Matthew) and two step children (Anya and Alma), a solid round of golf, a lunchtime run on a hot day, and a poker game with friends. He could identify which play a Shakespeare quote was from and sing every lyric to songs from Bob Dylan to Bob Marley to REO Speedwagon. His two favorite books were Les Misérables and Ball Four.

Predeceased by his first wife Kristen, stillborn daughter Kayleigh, parents Michael and Pauline (Terek) Hrehocik, and sister Tish, Mark knew sorrow. He drew from this deep well, practicing compassion for others, a seize-the-day zeal for life, and the wisdom of knowing that sitting outside enjoying a sunset has just as much value as accomplishing any task.

We learned from each other the depths of love in the hardest of times. We were grateful for the good days and found joy tucked into the folds of the bad days. We felt fortunate for the time we had together.

Mark and I knew each other through nearly equal years of sickness and health. Mark was always insistent that he was going to live forever. He would have given anything for one more day with Michael, Ben, and Matthew, and to get that—just like their mom did—Mark gave everything. I wish he had been right, but Lord, did he fight a good fight.

My Mark now sails through time and space, launched into the unknown and unknowable, a brilliant soul and spirit untethered from the confines of our small and beautiful world. In addition to me (his wife, Diane Reckless), Mark is survived by many who loved him: his three sons, Michael, Ben, and Matthew; two step-children Anya and Alma; four sisters, Paula Roche (John, dec.), Teena Culbert (Roy), Jane Clampitt (Henry), and Marcia Uziel (Don, dec.); a brother,

Michael Hrehocik (Vickie); nieces, nephews, friends, and a huge and immensely generous community that rallied to support our family for the past three years.

Please join us for a celebration of Mark's life at East Liberty Presbyterian Church, 116 S.

Highland Avenue, Pittsburgh, on Saturday, September 10, at 10:30am.

Reception to follow in the church social hall. Please feel free to send all the flowers; Mark loved them. Memorial donations in Mark's memory may be made to the Light of Life Rescue Mission, 913 Western Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15233. Please visit the funeral home website to leave a personal message of condolence for Mark's family.

“ I met Mark at the Bettis bowling league when we were both in our 20s. It didn't take long for us to become lifelong friends. Mark and I did everything together throughout our 20s and 30s. He always impressed me with his intelligence, quick wit, and athleticism. I was the best man at his first wedding, and Mark was the godfather to my son, Steven. Mark was a great friend, a great father to his kids, and someone I admired. Mark had a profound affect on my life.. I will never forget him.

“ When I visited Diane, Mark and family last summer, we played the Dictionary game and I was "pummeled" by Mark's creativity and poker face delivery of totally believable and totally made up definitions. I also discovered that he didn't like pasta anymore. I'm hoping that in the great beyond, at table with the saints, and angels, with Bobby, my Nonna, my Uncle Mario that you will be able to enjoy a full plate of spaghetti and meatballs! I was so happy to meet you and to witness the love and support that surrounded you, especially from your Earth Angel, Diane. With deepest sympathy for all your family, Debbie “ Mark's passing came as a shock to me. He was such a great guy. I always thought of him as one of the kids at Bettis since he was so much younger than me. He will be missed here on earth but he will be a joy in heaven. Rest in peace, Mark.

“ I am torn apart by Mark's passing. He was the nicest guy and deserved so much more from life. I feel so honored to have known him. He will be sorely missed. My heart breaks for his family. I wish I could have just one more game of poker with my friend.

“ I worked at Bettis in the same department as Mark for a few years. I didn't know him well, but I saw him in the hallway often and he would always say hi and smile. This obituary was beautifully written. Wishing your family peace and comfort at this difficult time.

“ Rest in glory Mark. Spiritual wisdom tells us we grow more Christ-like by suffering with him, but the brave fight you fought with such dignity begs that eternal question of why such good people have to endure it. May your family gone before you come to greet you with the saints, angels, and our Risen Lord. Diane and Your children are blessed by both your earthly and heavenly watch over them. Rest In Peace free of pain and full of light.

“ Mark, we never met, but your courage and humour, and spirit, captured so lovingly by Diane, moved so many of us. I can only imagine that for those who knew you in person, your legacy will be felt indefinitely.
