“ Dear Lynn and Family,
I was fortunate to have Marshall for all 4 years at AHS. He taught with passion and enthusiasm. He would enter the classroom with freshly squeezed celery or carrot juice each morning. I was fortunate enough to re-connect with him several months ago via phone. He had many memories of classmates and my mom who often sent him in homemade cakes. Marshall was a kind and gentle person. He was my favorite teacher. Please know that you are all in my thoughts and prayers. May he rest in peace.

“ Dear Lynn and children:

Marshall was always the gentleman: kind and wise. Our family has so many wonderful memories of Marshall that have marked time for all of us-celebrating the Beatles and children's movie nights are two but there are so many more to remember. We hold all of you in our hearts as you say goodbye to your husband, father and father-in-law. Sending our love and hugs.
