

Matthew C. Camacho-Cook

May 25, 1983 - January 3, 2019

Matthew Camacho-Cook, 35, of Allison Park, passed away Thursday, Jan. 3, 2019. Matt was a loving and supportive husband to Jessica, caring and proud father to their son William, respectful son to Mary and Marvin, and compassionate brother to Andrew. Matt was brilliant and inquisitive, enjoying projects at work and home. Matt was the mechanical engineering manager at Carnegie Robotics.

A memorial service will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 12, 2019, at 4501 Hatfield St., Pittsburgh. Professional services are trusted to D'ALESSANDRO FUNERAL HOME AND CREMATORY LTD., Lawrenceville.

In lieu of flowers, the family wishes for a memorial contribution, which will be designated at a later date.

“ I met Mary and Marvin when they came to Beatrice as newlyweds. We worked and played together. In 1982, we moved to Missouri where our daughter was born in 1983. The next summer, a group of our friends gathered in Beatrice. Several of us had little ones and this was the first and only time we got together. Matthew was one of the toddlers-darling with dark hair, a beautiful smile, and an endearing personality. I have no doubt he grew into a wonderful, accomplished man.

Tim and I send our sincere sympathy to Matt's family. No doubt, he had a marvelous future, but take solace in all the amazing things he accomplished in his lifetime. (we still have the handmade wooden cradle Marvin made as a going away present.)

“ Jessica, William, Marvin, Mary, and Andrew:

We have thought of you so often and have lifted you in prayer many times a day since we heard of Matthew's accident. We continue these practices and hope that you sense our love coming to you across the miles. What a wonderful young man. He deeply loved his family and friends. He was intelligent, hardworking, faithful, and considerate. He will be deeply missed. --We are available if you need anything. Your friends, Nelson & Chris
