“ Thanks everyone for the kind comments. It s nice to know Max was much loved by others. Max was a true believer in the phrase “I did it my way!” A give ya the shirt off his back kinda guy even if he wasn’t wearing one. And that sounds like something he would say. He will be forever missed and remain in our hearts and minds. He will now be next to Mom and we can all take solace in that. Thank you all!

“ MadMax will always be remembered for the kind hearted person he was. I never saw him have a bad word to say about anyone nor hold a grudge. No matter how much time has passed it was if we never parted. He was person that would help when you needed it. He was always ready to come to someone's aid. Im thankful for the time we had together as friends. He was a joy to be around and will be well remembered and sorely missed. RIP my friend.

“ Maxy,

You were one of a kind. I loved seeing you in the city, and I would always be so happy to know you were coming up to the farm for the weekend. You and Uncle Bob helped me learn how to ride that quad with the clutch a couple summers ago. I enjoyed zipping around the woods with you after I got it going. You made me laugh and gave me some great memories. You were the sweetest. Swimming in the pond with you was the best because you would paddle in and out to bring us more drinks. My favorite forever. I love you Max!

“ From the moment I met uncle max he welcomed me into the family with open arms. He was truly one of a kind. His sense of humor brightened every room he was in, and he was always the life of the party. His kindness and his ability to go with the flow rubbed off on everyone around him. We're all better people for having known him. Rest in peace Uncle Max.

“ Some of my earliest memories are with my Uncle Max. I learned from him at a young age how to be courageous and try new things even when you're scared, and at an older age, how to laugh at yourself and the world when things aren't going the way you'd planned. He was truly a unique and genuine soul. The world is worse off without him, but our family will keep his flame alive through the stories we share and the space we will always hold for him in our hearts. Keep dancing, Uncle Max and give grandma and papa Joe a kiss for me! I love you!

“ My brother, Macadoo, as momma called you lovingly, Tank 2, a childhood name as he and Tank 1, our brother Jojo, went through there chubby stages, my friend, my ultimate protector & Max Zoomie because nothing stopped you from living your life full steam ahead and with the speed of top fuel cars like your favorite Uncle raced. You leave us with a huge hole, 5 siblings now four. When we speak of you, we will say your name not with pain in our voices but with pride & joy. We will remember you as a fearless adventurer & kind generous soul. Until we meet again know that all my love is with you and will never cease. Little Lulu ☐

“ My cousin,
On behalf of Angelina and I, we cannot truly express in words, our sadness and shock. And that’s all we’ve been trying to do for the last few days. You were always somebody Lina and I (and my father and mother) enjoyed and wanted to spend time with. And honestly, I believe that means a lot. We would look forward to it. And you were ALWAYS welcome. Like I told Aunt Lulu and George- I am expecting and will continue to expect to see you at the farm when I visit home. The farm is my home and my everything and you are very much apart of what makes it so. Your love and joy and humor and smile..your sweetness and softness and stories can never be replaced and now the farm is forever changed. Lina and I have so many stories and memories we share with you. I think we both are so lucky to have that. You are the definition of a kind soul. You are loyalty and love personified. I wish I had a million more days with you. I wish our times could have lasted forever. I love you.

“ Max is one of a kind. I have known him as an acquaintance, then as family, and more importantly as a friend (and in the past few years, a housemate.) I will miss his passion for life and his quirky sense of humor. I will miss his charisma and how he brings people together. Farewell and be free. Uncle Steve
