“ I'll always cherish the relationship we had when I was a kid. The fishing trips, battling cages, helping me fix my moped all of the time. Lol the ass whooping when I'd steal your shirts and army jacket. The times you brought me sledding, and teaching me how to drive when I was 13. You took me in when I moved out to Pittsburgh when I was 19. And you taught me almost everything I know about plumbing. You were a great uncle and I missed the years we had apart. Thank you for all of the wonderful memories. I'll never forget you, and you'll always have a place in my heart. R.I.P. Uncle Mike. You were one of a kind.

Mike you were my husband for a short time in the 90's. You followed me to Pittsburgh. Josh and Alicia did admire you. Our fishing trips were phenomenal. Stay peaceful and watch over all of us.
