“ Mike is now in the healing arms of Jesus. We are truly heartbroken but I also praise God for this because he is now healed in heaven, no longer in the grip of the terrible cancer he suffered through. Mike fought valiantly for his life and his girls and when God had a different plan, he won the ultimate prize through Christ! The day after he passed, I realized it wa the first day in almost three years that I didn't need to pray for his healing because God had granted it in His way and His timing. God is good and Mike is now with his baby girl Tessa, reunited along with all others who went before him. Praise God for the good He has done! He was the best Dad and Uncle to his girls, niece and nephew giving them each his love, sharing special times and teaching them life lessons that will last. We remember Mike for the son in law he was to us and all he brought to our lives. God has truly blessed us through him and we know his memory will live on in us. Praise God for the wonderful things He has done, Mike is healed and well now! Thank you Jesus
