

Murray F. Crewe

April 4, 1960 - February 11, 2017

Murray Frederick Crewe, born April 4, 1960, died February 11, 2017. Principal Bass Trombonist of the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra, professor of music at Duquesne University and Carnegie Mellon University. He traveled the world and made every moment count. He is missed by his loving wife Linda, daughter Emilie, son Ralph (and daughter-in-law Jessica), sister Jenny and her family, brother Bill and his family, colleagues and countless students around the world. In lieu of flowers, please attend concerts and support the arts, and other great cultural events like the myriad of concerts that Murray gave to us all. As he always said, eat, drink and be Murray. A memorial service will be scheduled at a date which is yet to be determined.
