“ Hi Family and Friends,

Most of you won't know me but I feel obligated to stop and share a few words about my friend Paulette... I've just learned of her death and my heart is broken... I'm been trying to reach her over the past few months but could not find a working telephone number..

My name is D. Anderson (aka Debi, Didi) and met Paulette many, many years ago when I first began working at AT&T. She took me under her wing immediately and we became fast friends from the very beginning... That friendship never, ever ended..

When I met Augie, the man that she had intended to marry, he embraced me with an open heart and I was honored to be in her wedding..

Augie, Angela, Dion and all of you who loved her, I want you to know that I loved her...

Not just because she made the best lasagna in the world and all of my favorite cookies but because she was the kindest, sweetest, most unselfish friend in the whole world..

*With much Love, Peace and Blessings,
D. ANDERSON

“ Sweet Paulette, Your wings were ready, but our hearts were not. You have always been loved deeply, and loved back as well. We are missing you, but know we will all meet again someday..

You were always selfless, kind, and caring. Augie , Dion, and Angela thrived in your love. Your grandchildren were blessed to have you in their lives, as well as your family. Rest in Peace, Love always, Christine Smith Schaeffer “ Paulette was a kind, generous, and caring friend. From sharing Angela's toddler hand-me-downs and her wonderful pumpkin rolls, to exploring shops and restaurants on 'her' side of town, Paulette was always a fun person. And oh, that 'dirty' little snicker she could give you! Loved her, and the world's a lesser place without her. Godspeed, Paulette. Much sympathy to the Carrieri Family.

“ To the most giving sister-in-law. Paulette never missed a birthday or anniversary wish. Remembering the Sunday mornings the 4 of us spent together. Now 2 of you are in heaven. You will be very sadly missed. I hope you and Gino, and a whole lot more are watching over us from above. XOXOXO Beth “ Aunt Paulette, you were always there for us with your love, time and sense of humor. I can't remember a holiday without you in it and all the good times shared. You made our world better and you will be missed.

“ Aunt Paulette, you are dearly missed. You were my Godmother and Aunt, but more importantly, you were an outstanding wife to Uncle Augie, and loving Mother to Dion and Angela. You were such a big support when times were tough, and I know you and Gino are laughing today in heaven. I'm going to eat pizzelles all year thinking about you and the family! Rest easy Aunt Paulette. I love and miss you.

“ Our condolences to the Carrieri family.
Paulette was a wonderful true friend who was always there with a willing heart and helping hands. We could go months without talking and still pick up where we left off. To the family Paulette left behind, know that you were truly loved. Love is the answer and the solution to grief because love never dies. We will all miss my dear friend Paulette.
