“ Dearest Ralph, we knew you to be kind, generous and always there when a friend was needed. Your sense of humor could sometimes be surprising, especially coming from a such a soft-spoken guy. But the best part of knowing you was witnessing your devotion to and love for my friend over all of these years. You and Peggy were an example of what real love can be. You both always had each other's best interest at heart and every time we saw you, your love for each other was a beautiful thing to see. We will always remember our good times together. Rest easy my friend and know that I'll always be looking out for your girl.

Much love, Judy and Jim
