

Reginald Ray Gibbs

August 3, 1971 - June 24, 2025

Mr. Reginald Ray "Reggie" Gibbs, 53, of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, passed away on June 24, 2025.

Born on August 3, 1971, in Lubbock, Texas, Reggie brought his vibrant spirit and boundless energy into the world from the very beginning. He later made Pittsburgh his home, where he graduated from Pittsburgh Oliver High School and went on to pursue his passion for food at the Pennsylvania Institute of Culinary Arts (PICA).

For the past 28 years, Reggie dedicated himself to his career with unwavering pride and commitment. He took great satisfaction in his work and was proud of the legacy he built over nearly three decades.

Reggie was a gifted athlete whose talents spanned football, baseball, and basketball. His natural ability and competitive spirit made him a standout in every sport he played. A devoted Dallas Cowboys fan through and through, Reggie wore his Cowboys hats and jerseys with pride—even while surrounded by Steelers fans. On any given day, he would engage in sports talk with his cousins or a person on the elevator at his job. On the day prior to his passing, Reggie was heard discussing the Philadelphia Eagles' Super Bowl win with his primary care physician. His passion for sports and unwavering team spirit left a lasting impression on everyone who knew him.

His love for food was legendary. Reggie's culinary skills were unmatched, whether enjoying a hearty meal or manning the grill himself. He had an exceptional talent for preparing meats and sauces with such finesse that many believed he could have launched a successful catering business. His sister, Sonya, frequently appointed him grill master. Although she sometimes questioned his methods, the food was always amazingly delicious. Cooking wasn't just a skill for Reggie-it was an expression of love.

Above all else, Reggie cherished his family. He made it known-loudly and often-that they were the center of his world. His warmth extended beyond immediate relatives; he had a way of making everyone feel like family. Known as an outgoing jokester who never met a stranger, Reggie's laughter and light-hearted nature left lasting impressions wherever he went.

He is lovingly remembered by his children: DaQuet Moore, Azriella Mangum, London Gibbs, Paris Gibbs, Jyremiah Grisby, and Zaiden Gibbs-Moore; grandchildren: Aerie'onna Moore, Alaya Moore, Amina Tatum, Aria Montgomery, Ayonna Montgomery, Ayva Moore, Da'joni Moore, Damien Moore, DaQuet Moore Jr., Layla LaMarre, and Melvin Allen III; mother Lutisha Gibbs Clinton and stepfather Calvin Clinton Sr.; sisters LaSonya Gibbs King (Shawn) and Jasmine Jones; brothers TreMaine Gibbs, Calvin Clinton Jr. (Robin), Cesario Clinton, and Christopher Jones; as well as a village of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews-and countless others who were touched by his life.

Reggie now joins those who preceded him in rest: his grandmother Bertha Mae Gibbs; his grandfather Howard Columbus Gibbs Sr.; his uncle Howard Columbus Gibbs Jr.; and his cousin Edwina Byers.

A funeral service honoring Mr. Reginald Ray "Reggie" Gibbs will be held on Monday, June 30, 2025, from 10 AM until the time of service at 12 PM, at the Morningside Church Of God In Christ, 5173 Dearborn St. Pittsburgh, PA 15224.

May his memory bring comfort to those who knew him and joy to those who remember his laughter.

Deepest sympathies to the family and friends of our nephew, Reginald Gibbs. There are no words we can say that would change the outcome, take your pain away, fill up the empty space in our hearts. Family just know “If I could take your pain away, I would. If I could find the words to say, I would. I would turn your darkness into day, I would chase your fears and doubts away, And I’ll be there beside you, I would. If I could turn your world around, I would, If I could pick you up when you are down, I would, I would turn your mourning into joy, I would pray that God would heal your heart, And I’ll be there just to love you, I would.” Now MAYBE THE GOD OF ALL COMFORT, you now and always, AMEN! You are in our prayers. 🙏🙏🙏🙏
