“ Thanks Bob, for being s friend of long standing. Next time I perform a Bach suite, it will be dedicated to you.

There are so many good memories going back to Ann Arbor when we were young.

“ "Bob was an interesting customer and person. Besides doing the necessary repairs to his vehicles many interesting conversations occurred. We bantered back and forth with no resolve amid our many topics. He as a very intelligent man and would let me know so ! I agree with Jay Jarrell about Bob. I will miss him explaining about life and why expensive pens were so important. He was quite the character and will be missed. _Ron Gerenyi /Penn Hills Automotive

“ Bob and I were in the same business. Recruiters. He loved to tell clients and prospective clients that I said that he was the most inventive, most creative Recruiter that I had ever met in my 50 years in the business. I said that because it was the truth. I will miss his rants, his wisdom and his reports on his travel, food and a variety of purchases. The Readers Digest used to have a page entitled "The Most Unforgettable Character.....Bob deserved a page under that heading. Jay Jarrell

“ I am sorry to hear the news of Bob's death. He and I were student activists in Ann Arbor during the 1960s. I lost touch with him until recently when we resumed our contact via email.

Again, my condolences to his family.
