“ To Debbie, the girls, and family -

It was with great sadness that we heard of Bobby's passing. We both knew him as a kind, gentle, person. He was a good man. May he rest in peace.

“ It has been many years now since I first met Bob. I have to say that I liked him immediately. Even though we come from different backgrounds there was never a time that when we were together did I feel unable to relate. Our conversations filled with talk about cars(he knew that I like Mustangs) or family or work or music. Given enough time I am sure we could have solved all the world's problems. He was my friend.

My best memory of Bob is how happy he was when the girls were around. I am smiling as I write this remembering them joyfully playing together. It will stick with me always.

Husband, father, friend, he is already missed. Rest In Peace, Bob.

“ Bob was a big, happy man. He was extremely proud of the strong women in his life - his wife, his daughters, and his granddaughters who overcame so much in their brief lives. I hope they have good memories of "Bubba" holding them, and laughing as they stole his hat, his keys, or whatever else they could reach!
