“ Bob was a wonderful, kind, and loving stepfather who was a joy to be with. My family and I spent many years together enjoying vacations and family get togethers. He took care of my mom and they had a great life . We loved his sense of humor and he always made us laugh. He will be missed but now is reunited with Marge. We love you Bob, rest in peace.

Lots of good memories of my brother. He brought me dolls from the different countries he visited in the Navy. He gave me away at my wedding and celebrated with us at our 40th and 50th wedding anniversaries and would visit us on the weekends with his son Mike and we would enjoy a meal together. Rest in peace my brother and know you were loved.
