

Russell Watt, III

June 4, 1955 - April 29, 2018

Russell Watt III, of Pittsburgh formerly of New Kensington passed away on April 29, 2018. Mr. Watt was employed by Pyramid Health Care since 2007 as a Behavior Health Technician where he had an opportunity to use his unique communication skills to help guide individuals in recovery to a clean and sober life. He loved smooth Jazz music, "Hoops", and had a real flair for Fashion. Mr. Watt was a standout basketball player for St. Josephs High School in Natrona Heights in the early Seventies. He was the A-K Valley scoring champion in 1972. Mr. Watt was an advocate for the Homeless, a member of NAMI (National Alliance of the Mentally III), as well as a member of East Liberty Presbyterian Church. Survivors include a son, Jeremey Watt of Pittsburgh and a sister, Rosland Massey of New Kensington . There will be no public viewing, a memorial service will be held at Point State Park on May 6, 2018 at 11am.

Tribute Wall

“ Russell Watt, III

January 13, 2023 at 04:43 PM

“ My deepest Sympathy to Russell's family. Russell, may you enjoy your exciting journey as you awaken into an amazing new Life. Fly high my bother!

Nicholas Vukmanic - May 01, 2018 at 09:06 PM