“ Although I had the pleasure of knowing Sally for only a short time (less than 2 years- we first met at Marian Manor) her sparkling eyes, great smile, ready wit and concern for those around her will long live in my memory. I will miss our visits. Prayers for all who knew and loved her.. ..

“ Sallie was my friendly neighbor and good friend for many years on Alder St. I continued spending time with her after that until her final days. I remember how much she loved her beautiful black cat Annie. I am so glad to have known her and will miss her a lot. I am praying for her and her family and friends. Elise Power
